everyday EXTRAORDINARY PEOPLE

The Coronavirus crisis has changed our daily lives. While crises take an emotional and economic toll, they also provide us opportunities for reflection and change. They force us to think of the whole world as well as our individual lives in a new light. These uncertain times remind us about what it means to be a member of a community. It can bring out the best in people who not only show kindness and compassion but are truly everyday extraordinary people. This column is devoted to those neighbors, friends, and even strangers that consistently give freely of themselves for the benefit of you and me.

The daily sacrifices that law enforcement make are great. They do more during one shift than most of us could ever imagine experiencing. Robert Tyler Spears, son of our own Chryssy Carr, graduated from the Department of Criminal Justice on January 23rd, 2020. The graduates of Class 507 completed 20 weeks of training, which consisted of 800 hours of instruction. Tyler is a police officer for the city of Williamstown Kentucky, where he resides with his wife Savanna and his two daughters, Avery and Rhys. Thank you to all the men and women of law enforcement. In every corner of the earth, Special Olympics is transforming lives. For more than 50 years, with the support of over one million coaches and volunteers, including our very own Corey Mitchell, Special Olympics continues to inspire hope, belief, and courage. At the heart of Special Olympics are the athletes, and the Hillard Bobcat team is no exception, they were ready to shine at the 2020 Winter Games. The Bobcats were nearly 30 strong at Bowling Green State University, competing in Basketball Skills, Swimming, and Women's Basketball. The team even fit in some supporting Tyler and all the police officers in your community by filling a station need or dropping off a special treat at your local police department. The possibilities to show thankfulness are endless.

bowling time. It's these everyday athletes and volunteers that continue to inspire people everywhere to open their hearts to a wider world of human talents and potential. If you would like to learn more visit <https://www.specialolympics.org>.

If you or someone you know is an Everyday Extraordinary person, we would love to hear from you. ## PETS ARE FAMILY

The bond between a pet and owner is something unique. Pets are like family and insuring them is a smart move. According to CanineJournal.com, every six seconds, a pet parent is handed an emergency vet bill of $1,000 or more. Without pet insurance, you could be facing a tough decision when it comes to your pet's care. We can help! Give us a call today at 1-800-773-8630.

THIS IS WHO WE ARE...

Not all insurance agents are created equal. At Mitchell, our team is committed to working with our customers and prospective clients. We go out of our way to treat our clients like family, and we'd like you know more about ours. We want to help protect what you value most in business and in life.

Meet COREY MITCHELL, a self-described Secret Agent Man. Corey is our Special Projects Coordinator and your Claims Liaison. He enjoys helping clients get back to normal after what might have been one of the worst days of their lives, due to a car accident, storm damage, or other peril. Outside of work, Corey stays active coaching Special Olympics and working with the Miracle League.

Meet WHITLEY PACINO, known by friends and family as Whit. Whitley describes herself as your Insurance Adviser. She truly loves getting to know her clients on a personal level. Her passion is to educate and help her clients understand the coverage that they're choosing. Outside of work, Whitley feels at home in the kitchen cooking and talking about recipes. She enjoys camping and has adopted three dogs from her local Humane Society, admitting she has a soft spot for animals who need a loving home!
